TED DOAN
General Manager

85 Years ago on October 7th 1932 an Art Deco vision was created in the form of The Plaza Super Cinema and Variety Theatre which would grace the centre of Stockport providing the very best in Big Screen and Live Stage entertainment along with fine dining for everyone to enjoy and all these years later our much loved venue which was saved by our community supporting The Stockport Plaza Trust only 16 short years ago is still providing this service to you.

The brochure that you are holding today contains the latest season of attractions that provide perfect entertainment for all ages, including our family pantomime PETER PAN starring JOHN ALTMAN known to millions of TV fans as 'Nasty' Nick Cotton from Eastenders and the sensational touring production of Bill Kenwright's JOSEPH starring JOE McELDERRY which makes a welcome return to our venue.

With MUST SEE classic and current films to satellite broadcasts on the giant silver screen, the very best in stage productions, magnificent smaller scale events in our cabaret space 'The Green Room' alongside a rich variety of fine dining events in The Plaza Café I am sure I will have the absolute pleasure of welcoming you, hopefully in person to The Plaza in the very near future.

Finally don't forget that by keeping a close eye on our web site www.stockportplaza.co.uk, social media or joining our on line newsletter I can keep you informed of all the very latest added attractions here at The Plaza plus provide you with regular updates regards our current fundraising initiative to re-silver our auditorium dome which will only be achieved with your support.

Patrons of The Plaza:

Leslie Phillips CBE; Sabrina; The Right Honourable, The Baroness Bakewell DBE; & Ken Dodd OBE.

NT ENCORE SCREENING: NO MAN'S LAND

Thursday 12th January at 7.00pm

Following their hit run on Broadway, Ian McKellen and Patrick Stewart return to the West End stage in Harold Pinter's No Man's Land, broadcast from Wyndham's Theatre, London.

One summer's evening, two ageing writers, meet in a Hampstead pub and continue their drinking into the night at Hirst's stately house nearby. As the pair become increasingly inebriated, and their stories increasingly unbelievable, the lively conversation soon turns into a revealing power game, further complicated by the return home of two sinister younger men.

The broadcast will be followed by an exclusive Q&A with the cast and director Sean Mathias.

MENOPAUSE: THE MUSICAL

Friday 3rd March at 7.30pm

Starring Cheryl Fergison (EastEnders), Maureen Nolan (The Nolans), Rebecca Wheatley (Casualty) and Ruth Berkeley (Penny Dreadful), this hysterical show packed full of one-liners about night sweats, hot flushes and memory loss is backed by an instantly recognisable soundtrack of innuendo-laden versions of 60s, 70s and 80s pop classics.

An all-singing, all-dancing comedy set in a department store, where four women with seemingly nothing in common, meet by chance and make fun of their woeful lives experiencing "The Change". They soon bond as they realise that the menopause is no longer "The Silent Passage", but an unavoidable stage in every woman's life. The show is sponsored by Promensil Menopause.

BYE BYE BABY - THE STORY OF FRANKIE VALLI & THE FOUR SEASONS

Friday 16th June at 7.30pm

Bye Bye Baby takes you on a musical journey through the career of Frankie Valli & The Four Seasons, whose songs graced such films as The Deer Hunter, Dirty Dancing and Grease.

From their early beginning in the 1950s, this show celebrates the greatest hits such as 'Beggin'; 'Big Girls Don't Cry'; 'Walk Like A Man'; 'Lets Hang On'; 'December '63 (Oh What A Night)'; 'Bye Bye Baby'; 'Can't Take my Eyes off You'; and 'Grease' through to a superb grand finale medley of more of the group's greatest hits.

The combination of world class vocals and harmonies, along with snappy choreography and a vast catalogue of hits makes for a memorable and unforgettable night of nostalgia.

FILM: GOLDEN YEARS

Friday 23rd June at 11.00am

Fate, the pensions crisis and a steadfast refusal to accept the injustice of old age have contrived to force law abiding, retired couple, Arthur and Martha Goode into a life of crime.

Refusing to take the loss of their pensions lying down and to fade away into their declining years, our characters decide to fight back. They decide to take back what was theirs in the first place. They decide to start robbing banks.

FILM: BLUE VELVET

Friday 23rd June at 7.30pm

Beneath the surface of small town security lies a dark domain where innocents dare not tread and unpredictability is the norm. Spawned from the mind of David Lynch, Blue Velvet is a "shocking, deeply disturbing... startling mixture of the heartfelt and the horrific" (Newsweek)

Clean cut Jeffrey Beaumont (Kyle MacLachlan) realizes his hometown is not so normal when he discovers a human ear in a field. His investigation catapults him into a murder mystery involving a disturbed night club singer and drug addicted sadist. Soon Jeffrey is led deeper into their depraved existence...

THE FAIREY BAND - CONCERT IN AID OF ST ANN'S HOSPICE

Saturday 24th June at 7.30pm

Faireys return to the Plaza in June and their programme will include a performance of Tchaikovsky's crowd rousing 1812 Overture which will combine the band's technical prowess with spectacular cannon effects.

Founded in 1937 at the Fairey Aviation Works in Stockport, the Band achieved many musical successes under the direction of the late, great Harry Mortimer. Since those early days Fairey can boast unrivalled results at the British Open, crowned champions 16 times, more than any other band during this period.
