General Manager

Curtain Up! Light the Lights! The Interval is over and I am delighted to be welcoming you back to the much-loved Stockport Plaza Super Cinema and Variety Theatre here in the very heart of Stockport.

Since March 2020 when the national lock down began, The Plaza like so many other businesses has been closed but as we head through the Summer months and into our Autumn season, Stockport's home of family entertainment is looking forward to welcoming you back to an exciting season of events which as always guarantees an event for all styles and tastes.

As our reopening season commences, I am delighted to share with you in this brochure a host of fabulous stage and screen events which includes classic films, family entertainment and the very best in stage productions plus no Plaza Autumn/Winter season is complete unless countdown begins to our ever popular Family Pantomime which this year is DICK WHITTINGTON starring the sensational BRIAN CAPRON which runs from Friday 3rd December 2021 until Sunday 9th January 2022.

Our reopening of The Plaza will be in stages with our initial reopening of our Auditorium in August and then from Thursday 7th October our Plaza Café and on site Box Office will reopen with new opening hours, details of which can be found in this brochure.

On behalf of myself, The Directors and all of the team I would like to extend a heartfelt thank you for all of the support that everyone has shown for The Plaza during our closure and we look forward to seeing you in our magnificent venue in what I hope is the very near future.

FILM: WHAT EVER HAPPENED TO BABY JANE?

Friday 1st October at 11.00am & 7.30pm

Bette Davis plays former child star 'Baby' Jane Hudson who is taking care of her wheelchair bound sister Blanche (Joan Crawford), herself once a leading movie star whose career eclipsed her sister Jane when they became adults.

Now both forgotten aging relics of old Hollywood, the sisters live together in a chilling atmosphere of bitter sibling rivalry and mutual distrust. Their relationship breaks down completely when Jane decides to relaunch her career as an entertainer and holds her sister prisoner in her own room.

This claustrophobic thriller from director Robert Aldrich is based on the novel by Henry Farrell and remains a horror classic.

FILM: THE FATHER

Friday 8th October at 11.00am

Having just scared off his recent caregiver, Anthony, an ailing, octogenarian Londoner gradually succumbing to dementia, feels abandoned when concerned Anne, his daughter, tells him she's moving to Paris. Confused and upset, against the backdrop of a warped perspective and his rapid, heart-rending mental decline, Anthony is starting to lose his grip on reality, struggling to navigate the opaque landscape of present and past.

Now, as faded memories and glimpses of lucidity trigger sudden mood swings, dear ones, Anthony's surroundings, and even time itself become distorted. Why has his younger daughter stopped visiting? Who are the strangers that burst in on Anthony?

DIRTY DUSTING

Thursday 14th October at 7.30pm

Join us for an evening of pure theatrical viagra with the laugh out loud comedy, Dirty Dusting. The 2021 production stars Vicki Michelle ('Allo 'Allo!) and Vicky Entwistle (Coronation Street) with Leah Bell completing the threesome.

Gladys, Olive and Elsie are three "vintage style" cleaning ladies who chance on an 'unconventional' way of earning some extra cash. A wrong number requiring a Sex Chat Line rings into the office and gives them a great idea... "Why not start their own Sex Chat Line?" What could possibly go wrong????

Written by Ed Waugh and Trevor Wood, this production is directed by Leah Bell who injects this hilarious play with a fresh and lively approach coupled with her own unique comedic style.

FILM: BEDKNOBS AND BROOMSTICKS

Sunday 17th October at 3.00pm

During WWII in England, Charlie, Carrie, and Paul Rawlins are sent to live with Eglantine Price, who it turns out is an apprentice witch. Charlie blackmails Miss Price that if he is to keep her practices a secret, she must give him something, so she takes a bed knob from her late father's bed and places the "famous magic travelling spell" on it, and only Paul can activate it.

Their first journey is to a street in London where they meet Emelius Browne, former headmaster of Miss Price's witchcraft training correspondence school. Miss Price tells him of a plan to find the magic words for a spell known as Substitutiary Locomotion, which brings inanimate objects to life. This spell will be her work for the war effort.

Russian National Ballet Presents
SLEEPING BEAUTY
A SPECTACULAR FAIRY-TALE

Thursday 18th November at 7.30pm

After the sell-out performances of Nutcracker and Swan Lake in the last years, Russian National Ballet finally returns to the UK.

Every child's favourite fairy-tale, Sleeping Beauty is the classic story of love and innocence, mystery and magic set to Tchaikovsky's sublime score.

Stunning choreography, sumptuous costumes and wonderful sets form the fantasy world in which the Lilac Fairy struggles against the evil Carabosse.

There are no scores more successful in supporting the full range of ballet than those by Tchaikovsky. Highlights include the Famous 'Rose Adagio' when Princess Aurora is introduced to four princes.

A wonderful evening out and memories which you will cherish long after the final curtain falls.

ROMESH RANGANATHAN: THE CYNIC'S MIXTAPE

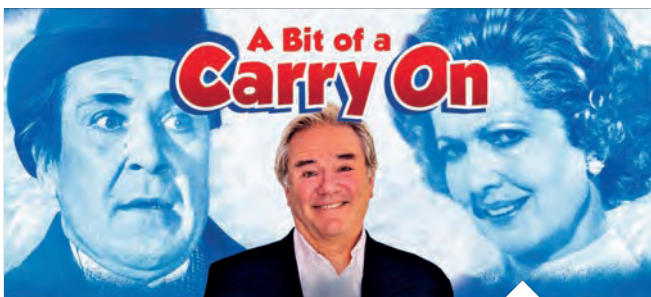

Friday 21st & Saturday 22nd January at 8.00pm

Romesh is back with a brand new show 'The Cynic's Mixtape', his most brutally honest show yet.

Fresh from the 'Misadventures of Romesh Ranganathan', 'A League Of Their Own' and 'Judge Romesh', he's putting showbiz aside to deliver a carefully curated selection of all the things he has found unacceptable since the last tour, including why trying to save the environment is a scam, why none of us are truly free, and his suspicion that his wife is using gluten intolerance to avoid sleeping with him.

A BIT OF A CARRY ON

Sunday 23rd January at 7.30pm

Darling Buds of May actor Tyler Butterworth tells the funny, moving and unashamedly nostalgic story of his much-loved parents, the nation's first female TV impressionist Janet Brown, and the inimitable Carry On star Peter Butterworth.

From heroic wartime escapades at POW camp Stalag Luft 111, to a night at Chequers with Mrs Thatcher, A Bit of a Carry On is a warm and uplifting journey from wartime to showtime, taking us deep into the golden age of British TV & film comedy – With classic film and tv clips, rare photographs and a Q&A with Tyler, A Bit of a Carry On is your chance to really get to know two of British comedy's brightest stars, who lived to make us laugh.

"I was blown away. Tyler tells a great story." Simon Williams

DAVE SPIKEY – A FUNNY THING HAPPENED... I SHOT DEREK RIGBY

Friday 28th January at 7.30pm

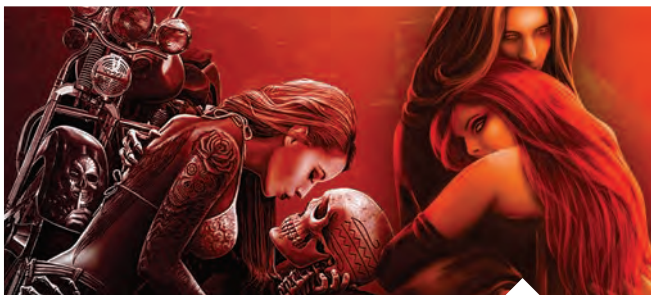

Funny things happen at home, at work, out shopping, at the Vets, in Prison, out with his eccentric Gran and in Hong Kong – obviously. Dave's comedy radar has always instinctively drawn him to these small out-of-the-ordinary events that wash over most of us. Once identified, he analyses and elaborates them in his own way whilst at the same time reminding us that not only have we too witnessed them, they've probably happened to us!

It's this added dimension, this comedy of association that elevates the events to laugh-out-loud funny. No wonder Time Out magazine said of him, "Not only a very funny comedian but one of the finest raconteurs around"

THE GREEN ROOM AT THE PLAZA: SIMON KEMPSTON

Wednesday 2nd February at 7.30pm

Scottish singer-songwriter and leading acoustic fingerstyle guitarist Simon Kempston has toured the world performing his highly original, contemporary acoustic folk/blues songs.

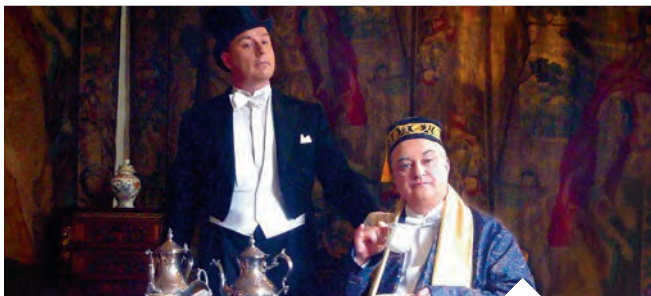

His beautifully crafted folk-tinged material showcases his incredible, distinctive and intricate finger style guitar work – an exciting blend of the folk-baroque, blues and classical styles, and his gently nuanced, compelling tenor vocals.

An inspiring, poetic lyricist, Simon's live performances are intense and impassioned, the subject matter chiefly Scottish, yet with universal appeal. This first-time Greater Manchester concert is not to be missed.

PHIL MCINTYRE LIVE LTD PROUDLY PRESENTS
MILTON JONES IN MILTON:IMPOSSIBLE

Thursday 10th February at 7.30pm

One man. One Mission. Is it possible? No, not really.

Milton reveals the truth about being an international spy, before being given a disappointing new identity which forced him to appear on Mock the Week, Live at the Apollo.

But this is also a love story with the twist, or even a really bad sprain.

Just gloriously daft nonsense or is there a deeper meaning? Every man has his price. Sainsburys, where good food costs less.
