FILM: STARVE ACRE

Sunday 22nd September at 2.30pm & 7.00pm

15

1970s, rural Yorkshire. Richard and Juliette Willoughby's seemingly idyllic family life is thrown into turmoil when their young son Owen starts acting out of character. A sudden, tragic event brings grief and drives a wedge between the once happy couple. At Starve Acre, their remote family home, academic archaeologist Richard buries himself in exploring a folkloric myth that the ancient oak tree that once stood on their land is imbued with phenomenal powers. While Juliette turns to the local community to find some kind of peace, Richard obsessively digs deeper. An unexpected discovery soon occupies the couple's attention and dark and sinister forces, unwittingly allowed into their home, offer a disturbing possibility of reconnection between them.

After last year's successful tour, Crown Ballet® returns to the Plaza to enchant you with this delightful production. The Nutcracker – a charming and kind fairy tale is one of the jewels of Tchaikovsky's repertoire. Prepare to enter a magical new world – the nutcracker in this ballet may be a handsome prince in disguise.

The original Christmas story is based on The Nutcracker and the Mouse King written by E.T.A. Hoffmann. It tells the story of Marie, a sad little girl, whose godfather, Drosselmeier, gives her a Nutcracker doll as a present on Christmas Eve. In her lively imagination it turns into a prince and the magic starts...

This eternal seasonal favourite will be an unforgettable journey and an ideal introduction to audiences of any age to the magic that is classical ballet. A wonderful treat full of glitter for the whole family!

FILM: REAR WINDOW

Friday 10th January at 11.00am & 7.30pm

None of Hitchcock's films have ever given a clearer view of his genius for suspense than Rear Window. When professional photographer J.B. "Jeff" Jeffries (James Stewart) is confined to a wheelchair with a broken leg, he becomes obsessed with watching the private dramas of his neighbours play out across the courtyard.

When he suspects a salesman may have murdered his nagging wife, Jeffries enlists the help of his glamorous socialite girlfriend (Grace Kelly) to investigate the highly suspicious chain of events... Events that ultimately lead to one of the most memorable and gripping endings in all of film history.

MILTON JONES - HA!MILTON

Thursday 23rd January at 7.30pm

This is not a musical. Milton Jones is tone deaf and has no sense of rhythm, but at least he doesn't make a song and dance about it. He has more important things to discuss. Like giraffes...and there's a bit about tomatoes.

You might know him from Mock the Week, Live at the Apollo or Radio 4. Or that time he stood for the Scottish National Party, fought a hard campaign, but in the end had to respect the wishes of the people of Cardiff. WARNING *contains jokes from the start.

Regal Entertainments Ltd proudly presents the return of the record breaking hilarious 1987 cult classic Rita, Sue & Bob Too! TV favourite Jake Quickenden heads the stellar cast as Bob in the production.

Jake will be joined by Hollyoaks' Jessica Ellis as Michelle, Shameless and Coronation Street's Warren Donnelly as Dad, Britain's Got Talent's Siobhan Phillips as Mum, Kay Nicholson as Rita and Jenna Sian O'Hara as Sue.

The play tells the story of Rita and Sue, two working class girls from a rundown council estate who are about to finish their final year at school. In their spare time, they earn money babysitting for married couple Bob and Michelle. Behind Michelle's back, Bob embarks on an affair with both Rita and Sue, who take it in turns with him in his car in the countryside. Michelle eventually finds out and leaves lothario Bob. When Bob later develops a preference for Rita, the two girls fall out but when Sue ends up in an abusive relationship, the trio are reunited.

Cast is subject to change.

FILM: SINGIN IN THE RAIN

Thursday 13th March at 11.00am & 7.30pm

Working his way up from being a song and dance man to one of the top movie stars of the silent era, Don Lockwood finds his career in jeopardy with the advent of talkies.

Studio bosses insist that his next production features synchronised sound, but it becomes abundantly clear that his egocentric co-star does not have a voice suited for the new medium. Don recruits an aspiring “serious” actress to dub the parts and raises his co-star’s anger even further when he starts to fall for her.

The Plaza is wheelchair accessible directly into the stalls and assistance is available if required. There are wheelchair positions in the Stalls and accessible/adapted toilets in the stalls and café. There is lift access to our first floor Plaza Café and basement level Patron's Lounge.

We want to make visiting The Plaza as easy and comfortable as we can for visitors with disabilities or access requirements. Joining the Access Register will help deliver the best possible experience for guests who can call a designated booking line – Tele: 03333 202 891 and the access team at Quay Tickets will answer the Plaza Booking Line and assist in any way that they can. Alternatively, we have a contact email for the team for your assistance – access@quaytickets.com. The Access Register will assist in personal bookings at The Plaza or grant access to improved booking facilities online.

Online booking in association with

Plaza Café

The Plaza Café is open from Wednesday to Saturday – 11.00am to 3.00pm – for table reservations of 2 or more please contact us on 0161 480 3818

Concessions

Many shows offer discounts for senior citizens (patrons aged 65 years or over), students, children (aged between 1 and 16 years of age) and other concessions on the production of relevant proof of ID. Always ask the box office at the time of booking as we cannot discount on tickets already purchased. Only one concession is available per ticket.

Hire the Plaza

The Plaza and Café accommodating up to 1314 people and 90 people respectively are available to hire for screenings, productions, parties, conferences or special occasions. For further details please contact Ted Doan via email: ted.doan@stockportplaza.co.uk or call 0161 480 3818

Restoration Donation

At point of booking you will be asked if you would like to donate to the ongoing maintenance and restoration appeal. As the Plaza has no forms of external funding these donations assist us in preserving and restoring this Art Deco gem, so thank you in advance if you are able to support us.

Refunds or Exchanges

We regret that we cannot refund or exchange tickets. The box office can try to re-sell them subject to a £1 per ticket exchange fee, on the understanding that the sale of the Plaza's own available seats takes priority.

Covid / Health Guidelines

All events at the Plaza will run in line with local and national government guidelines at the time of the event.
